Inside the Actors Studio

The most impressive lineup of performing artists on television, now available on DVD!

ICONS - Box Set 1 (7 hours)

Paul Newman - This intimate episode, one of the series' first, was taped during Newman's tenure as President of the Actors Studio and reveals the intricate method behind those piercing blue eyes.

Robert Redford - Explore what makes this accomplished actor and director tick. And explore how he was able to create a testament to his love for the art of film, through revolutionized independent cinema in 1980 by launching the acclaimed Sundance Institute for aspiring filmmakers.

Barbra Streisand - Take a glimpse at one of the foremost women in showbiz. She was the first person to ever win a Grammy®, Tony®, Emmy® and an Oscar®. Barbra Streisand is the epitome of artistic excellence and a talent with which to be reckoned.

Clint Eastwood - In his interview with the Actors Studio, the tow-time Academy Award winner opens up and reveals much about his background and how it has shaped his film work over the past 40 years.

DAVE CHAPPELLE - Box Set 2 (2 hours)

Having worked steadily as a popular comedian since elementary school and as an actor since 1993, Chappelle graciously took his place in the limelight with his HBO special Killin' Them Softly and was then suddenly launched into superstardom with the premiere of his hit sketch comedy series, Chappelle's Show.

JOHNNY DEPP - Box Set 3 (1 hours)

In one of only a handful of interviews Johnny Depp has ever granted, he lets the audience in on both his fascinating eccentricity and his deep, uncompromising devotion to the craft of acting. He began as one of the most intriguing actors of his generation and has become one of its most respected artists and incandescent stars.

LEADING MEN - Box Set 4 (5 hours)

Robert De Niro - Famous for being as protective of his privacy as of the integrity of his performances, he ended that with this interview. Known as one of the two or three leading actors of his generation, his vast experience through the wide range of his work attests to the limitless horizons of the talent his peers have recognized and honored.

Al Pacino - In this rare public appearance he reveals the man behind the many masks. With the grace and skill of a master magician he has vanished into one role after another, creating an unforgettable gallery of characters that has earned him award nominations and critical acclaim.

Sean Penn - The driving force behind an actor who is known for taking on challenging roles that render the actor invisible beneath the brilliant illumination of the part is shown. His varied roles have brought him awards, nominations and more for the efforts at his art.

Russell Crowe - A remarkable combination of the classical British and realistic American traditions, he has found a home in American cinema as a movie star, actor, rebel, and artist, embodied in the unique characters he has created.

ROBIN WILLIAMS - Box Set 5 (2 hours)

One of the world's most celebrated comedians, Robin Williams recounts his experience after having received countless awards and accolades. Williams keeps the audience entertained with signature impersonations, heartwarming stories from his personal life, and much more. Featuring never-before-seen outtakes of the interview with James Lipton, his fascinating eccentricity and his deep, uncompromising devotion to the craft of acting.

BONUS FEATURES:

- Deleted scenes from each episode
- Introductions with James Lipton - host, producer, and Dean Emeritus of the Actors Studio
- 2006 Emmy Nominee, Outstanding Nonfiction Series. In 2005, Mr. Lipton was nominated for the Non-fiction Producer of the Year Award by the Producers Guild of America. In 2007, Lipton will be given a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Academy of Television and Sciences.

INSIDE THE ACTORS STUDIO has explored the lives and craft of 200 actors, writers and directors over the past eleven years, and, with two July 14, 2005 nominations, for Outstanding Nonfiction Special and Outstanding Nonfiction Series, has received eleven consecutive Emmy nominations, the CableAce Award as Best Talk Show, and the New York Festival Award as The World's Best Talk/Entertainment Program, in the only US/international competition, judging 16,000 television programs.
